

I am concerned that changing the rules regarding media consolidation will further erode American Democracy. Please do not do this to our Country. No further media consolidation!